

DIRECTIONS BY TRAIN

Getting the Metro from Lisbon Airport to Oriente Station

1. Exit the Arrivals area and turn right following the signs for the Metro and Exit
2. Exit the airport at the Metro exit and turn right
3. Buy a ticket for the Metro at the ticket machine for Gare do Oriente (€1.40). You will also need to buy a Viva Viagem card costing €0.50. (Staff are on hand to assist you)
4. Take the Red line (Aeroporto - Saldanha line) to Gare do Oriente (3 stops from Lisbon Airport - approximately 10 minutes)
5. When you get off the Metro at Gare do Oriente, turn right and follow the signs into the main terminal at the train station. Take stairs or escalators to one level below the top to find the Ticket Offices.

The Train from Oriente to Reguengo-V Pedra Pontével (or Santarem)

1. The best train to get is the Tomar Regional train to Reguengo (full name Reguengo-V Pedra Pontével) which runs at least every hour, except on Sunday. (If there is a long wait for the Regional train then the faster Oporto National train to Santarem may be better) Both journeys are approximately 40 minutes. (Note - Reguengo Station is nearer to Marchanta)
2. If you arrive before 8pm at Oriente, you can purchase a ticket at the Ticket Offices. If you arrive after 8pm, you can purchase the ticket on the train from the Conductor.
3. Ask for the platform number and time of departure for your train. Staff will help you.
4. Please ring us to let us know which train you are taking so that we can collect you from Reguengo (or Santarem) Station
5. On arriving at Reguengo, you need to go over the tracks, via a bridge to the opposite side for collection.
